Wallace Believes His Assailant Did Not Act Alone

Gov George C. Wallace of Alabama said here yesterday that although he couldn't prove it, he believed that Arthur H. Bremer, the man who shot hif two years ago, did not act alone.

"If I ever get to the bottom of this, I don't think he was a loner," the paralyzed Governor said during a taping of the "Today" show and "Not for Women Only" at the studios of the National Broadcasting Company.

Asked whether Mr. Bremer could have been connected to any of the Watergate conspirators, specifically G. Gordon Liddy, and, if so, whether President Nixon was aware of such alleged association, Mr. Walalce replied:

"I never would imply that the President of the country knew anything about it. I have no evidence presented to me that would connect anybody to Bremer."
